No. 31 of 2014

PERSONS WITH DISABILITIES (EQUAL OPPORTUNITIES) ACT, 2014

AN ACT TO ACHIEVE EQUALISATION OF OPPORTUNITIES FOR PERSONS WITH DISABILITIES; TO ELIMINATE DISCRIMINATION ON THE BASIS OF DISABILITIES; TO PROVIDE RIGHTS AND REHABILITATION AND HABILITATION OF PERSONS WITH DISABILITIES; TO ESTABLISH THE NATIONAL COMMISSION FOR PERSONS WITH DISABILITIES; AND FOR CONNECTED PURPOSES.

[Date of Assent - 12th August, 2014]

Enacted by the Parliament of The Bahamas

PART I-PRELIMINARY

1. Short title and commencement.
   (1) This Act may be cited as the Persons with Disabilities (Equal Opportunities) Act, 2014.
   (2) This Act shall come into operation on such date as the Minister may appoint by notice published in the Gazette, and different dates may be so appointed for different provisions.

2. Interpretation.
   In this Act, unless the context otherwise requires—
   "adjustment order" means an order made by the Commission under section 27;
   "appropriate" means whatever is necessary to meet the individual need or needs of a person with disabilities;
“assistive or adaptive devices and services” means implements, tools and specialised services (including the services of qualified technicians and tutors for persons with learning disabilities, interpreters for the deaf and qualified teachers for the blind) provided to persons with disabilities to assist them in education, employment or activities of daily living;

“care giver” any person who provides assistance, care and support to a person with disabilities;

“Commission” means the National Commission for Persons with Disabilities established under section 4;

“discriminate” means to accord different treatment to different persons solely or mainly as a result of their disabilities and includes using words, gestures or caricatures that demean, scandalise or embarrass a person with a disability;

“discrimination on the basis of disability” means any distinction, exclusion or restriction on the basis of disability which has the purpose or effect of impairing or eliminating the recognition, enjoyment or exercise, on an equal basis with others, of all human rights and fundamental freedoms in the political, economic, social, cultural, civil or any other field, including all forms of discrimination such as denial of reasonable accommodation;

“Fund” means the National Development Fund for Persons with Disabilities established under section 35;

“medical practitioner” means a person registered or licensed as a medical practitioner under the Medical Act (Ch. 224) and Dental Act (Ch. 226);

“Minister” means the Minister with responsibility for Disability Affairs;

“organizations for persons with disabilities” means associations or societies formed for the purposes of rendering services to persons with disabilities;

“persons with disabilities” means persons with a long term disability including physical, mental, intellectual, developmental or sensory impairments and other health related illnesses, which in interaction with various barriers may hinder full and effective participation in society on an equal basis with others;

“public building” means a building, irrespective of ownership which is used and accessed by the public;

“reasonable accommodation” means necessary and appropriate modification and adjustments not imposing a disproportionate or undue burden where needed in a particular case to ensure persons with disabilities the enjoyment or exercise on an equal basis with others of all human rights and fundamental freedoms;

“the Act” means the Persons with Disabilities (Equal Opportunities) Act;
“the Court” means the Supreme Court or a Magistrate’s Court, as the context may require.

3. Guiding principles.
The United Nations Convention on the Rights of Persons with Disabilities shall inform decisions taken in the administration of this Act.

PART II - ESTABLISHMENT OF THE COMMISSION

4. Establishment of the Commission.
   (1) There is hereby established a Commission to be known as the National Commission for Persons with Disabilities.
   (2) The Commission shall be a body corporate with perpetual succession and a common seal and shall in its corporate name be capable of suing and being sued, and acquiring, holding and disposing of movable and immovable property.

5. Minister may give directions to the Commission.
The Minister may give to the Commission directions of a general or of a specific nature as to the policy to be followed by the Commission in the carrying out or pursuit of its functions as appear to the Minister requisite in the public interest and the Commission shall give effect to any such directions.

   (1) The Commission shall consist of fifteen members appointed by the Minister, of whom—
       (a) five members, one nominated from each of the Ministries with responsibility for works, social services, health, education and labour;
       (b) five members, four of whom are persons with disabilities, nominated by and from non-governmental organizations that are directly and solely concerned with the welfare and advancement of persons with disabilities;
       (c) one member appointed from a list of not less than three persons submitted by an organization which the Minister responsible for labour deems to be representative of employers in The Bahamas;
(d) one member appointed in consultation with the organizations for the time being recognized by the Government as the umbrella organizations representing the interests of workers in The Bahamas;
(e) one member nominated by and from an organization representing civil society; and
(f) two members who are parents of persons with disabilities or who have extensive experience as a care giver of a person with disabilities.

(2) The provisions of the Schedule to this Act shall have effect with respect to the conduct of business and the affairs of the Commission.

7. Chairman and Vice-Chairman.

(1) There shall be a Chairman appointed by the Minister and a Vice-Chairman of the Commission who shall be elected by and from the members of the Commission.

(2) The Chairman or the Vice-Chairman shall be a person with a disability or a person who has had a disability.

(3) The Chairman, Vice-Chairman and members appointed under section 6 shall hold office for a period of three years and shall be eligible for re-appointment for a further term not exceeding six years.

(4) The provision of the Schedule shall have effect with respect to the membership and procedure of the Commission.

(5) The functions of the Chairman are—
(a) to preside over the meetings of the Commission;
(b) to supervise the management and administration of the affairs of the Commission;
(c) to ensure that the decisions and policies of the Commission are implemented;
(d) to represent the Commission;
(e) with the approval of the Commission, to enter into and execute any contracts as may be necessary in pursuit of the Commission's functions; and
(f) with the approval of the Commission, to appoint any committee or other body as may be necessary for the efficient discharge of the functions of the Commission.

8. The Secretariat of the Commission.

(1) The Commission shall have a secretariat that shall provide services for the carrying out of the functions of the Commission.
(2) The Secretariat shall be headed by an Executive Secretary to be assisted by a deputy executive secretary, both of whom shall be appointed by the Minister after consultation with the Commission.

(3) The Minister after consultation with the Commission shall employ the technical, administrative and other personnel required by the Secretariat.

9. Functions of the Executive Secretary.

(1) The Executive Secretary shall be an ex-officio member of the Commission and shall serve in a full-time capacity.

(2) The Executive Secretary shall be the chief administrative officer of the Secretariat and shall exercise general supervision and control over the staff of the Secretariat.

(3) The Executive Secretary shall ensure execution of the functions of the Commission in accordance with this Act and manage and administer the affairs of the Commission.

10. Functions of the Commission.

(1) The functions of the Commission shall be—

(a) to issue adjustment orders under section 27 of this Act;

(b) to formulate and develop measures and policies designed to—

(i) co-operate with the government during the census or any data collection surveys to ensure that accurate figures of persons with disabilities are obtained in the country, for the purposes of planning;

(ii) advise the minister on the provisions of any international treaty or agreement relating to the care or rehabilitation and habilitation of persons with disabilities and its benefits to the country;

(iii) recommend measures to prevent discrimination against persons with disabilities;

(iv) put into operation schemes and projects for self-employment or regular employment for the generation of income by persons with disabilities;

(c) to register—

(i) persons with disabilities;

(ii) institutions, associations and organizations, including those controlled and managed by the government and local authorities, that provide services for the rehabilitation and habilitation and care of persons with disabilities;
(iii) places at which services for the rehabilitation and habilitation of persons with disabilities are provided; and
(iv) persons with disabilities whose condition requires constant medical attention;
(d) to provide, to the maximum extent possible—
(i) recommendations which shall be included in the Road Traffic Act (Ch. 220) in order to facilitate appropriate adaptations and modifications to motor vehicles driven by persons with disabilities;
(ii) institute a special driver's licence for persons with disabilities to ensure that these persons where permitted by law are allowed to drive motor vehicles;
(iii) to provide for qualified driving instructors to certify persons with disabilities for a special licence;
(e) to provide special recommendations for persons with increased vulnerabilities such as women, children, the elderly, the poor and persons with dual or multiple disabilities;
(f) to consult with the Government in the formulation of suitable curricula for vocational rehabilitation and habilitation centres and other training facilities for persons with disabilities;
(g) to assess and report to the Minister on the care, rehabilitation and habilitation of persons with disabilities and to advise on the relative priorities to be given to the implementation of those measures;
(h) to consult with the Government to ensure the provision of suitable affordable housing and shelter for persons with disabilities and the adoption of the principles of universal design in the provision of supplies and services;
(i) to ensure the proper care and protection of persons with disabilities during periods of civil unrest and natural emergencies or disasters;
(j) to consult with the Government to ensure the provision of suitable transportation for persons with disabilities;
(k) generally to carry out measures for public information on the rights of persons with disabilities and the provisions of this Act;
(l) to perform such other functions in relation to the care, rehabilitation and habilitation of persons with disabilities as the Commission may deem necessary;
(m) to perform such other functions as may be assigned to the Commission under this or any other Act;
(n) to review this legislation from time to time and make necessary recommendations to the Minister; and
(o) to monitor implementation of and make recommendations for compliance with international treaties to which The Bahamas is a party for the benefit of persons with disabilities.

(2) Without prejudice to the provisions of subsection (1), the Commission shall have power to do all things that are necessary or convenient to be done for or in connection with the performance of its functions and in particular—

(a) to conduct inquiries into any matter relating to the care, rehabilitation and habilitation of persons with disabilities;

(b) to constitute committees consisting of its members, and where necessary to co-opt experts to serve on such committees with the approval of the Minister;

(c) to vest in or delegate to any committee constituted under paragraph (b) such of the functions of the Commission as the Commission may with the approval of the Minister determine;

(d) with the approval of the Minister, to engage or make other arrangements with any other person to carry out research on, or supply information on, any matter relating to the care, rehabilitation and habilitation of persons with disabilities.

11. Funds of the Commission.

The funds of the Commission shall consist of the following—

(a) funds voted by Parliament; and

(b) funds the Commission may receive as a result of public and private appeal from local and international donors or agencies for the purposes of carrying out its functions.

12. Annual accounts of the Commission.

(1) The financial year of the Commission shall be from the 1st July of one year to the 30th June of the following year.

(2) The Commission shall ensure that proper accounts and other records are kept in relation to the revenue and expenditure of the Commission and ensure that, within three months of the end of each financial year of the Commission, a statement of accounts of the Commission is prepared and audited by an external auditor appointed by the Commission and approved by the Minister.

(1) The Commission shall prepare an annual report of its activities which shall be presented to the Minister and all other Government agencies involved in the work of the Commission.

(2) The Minister shall lay a copy of the Report before Parliament and arrange for such further publication of it as he considers appropriate.

PART III – RIGHTS OF PERSONS WITH DISABILITIES

(1) No person shall deny a person with a disability equal access to opportunities for suitable employment.

(2) A qualified employee with a disability shall be subject to the same terms and conditions of employment and the same compensation, privileges, benefits, fringe benefits, incentives or allowances as qualified able-bodied employees.

(3) Every employer having more than one hundred employees shall employ not less than one percent of qualified persons with disabilities.

(4) The Commission shall provide a list of employable persons with disabilities and where such persons are not available for employment the Commission may issue to the employer, a certificate of exemption from the requirement prescribed under subsection (3).

15. Vocational training skills, development and training programmes.

The Minister responsible for Labour, Social Services, Youth, Sports and Culture, and Education shall design, collaborate and implement programmes that provide—

(a) persons with disabilities to be engaged as apprentices or learners;

(b) persons with disabilities with skills to enable them to engage in gainful employment; and

(c) appropriate vocational measures which serve to develop the skills and potential of persons with disabilities and enable them to compete favourably for available, productive and remunerative employment opportunities in the labour market.

(1) Subject to subsection (2), no employer shall discriminate against person with disabilities in relation to—
(a) the advertisement of employment;
(b) the recruitment for employment;
(c) the creation, classification or abolition of posts;
(d) the determination or allocation of wages, salaries, pensions, accommodation, leave or other such benefits;
(e) the choice of persons for posts, training, advancement, apprenticeships, transfer or promotion;
(f) the provisions of facilities related to or connected with employment; or
(g) any other matter related to employment.

(2) Notwithstanding subsection (1), an employer shall be deemed not to have discriminated against a person with a disability if—

(a) the act or omission alleged to constitute the discrimination was not wholly or mainly attributable to the disability of the said person;
(b) the disability in question was a relevant consideration in relation to the particular requirements of the type of employment concerned; or
(c) special facilities or modifications, whether physical, administrative or otherwise, are required at the work place to accommodate the person with a disability, which the employer cannot reasonably be expected to provide.

(3) A person with a disability who feels discriminated against by an employer contrary to the Act, may complain to the Commission.

(4) The Commission may take action in respect of a complaint received as it considers fit.

(5) Nothing in subsection (3) or (4) shall preclude such person from applying to the Industrial Tribunal for the hearing and determination of any dispute against his employer on the grounds of discrimination under sections 57 and 58 of the Industrial Relations Act (Ch. 321).

(6) Any contract for employment or for the provision of goods, facilities or services, or any other agreement, shall be void in sofar as it purports to deny any person any rights or privileges conferred under this Act or in any other way to limit the operation of this Act.

(7) An employer shall provide such facilities and effect such modifications, whether physical, administrative or otherwise, in the work place as may reasonably be required to accommodate persons with disabilities.

17. Records for job placement.

The Commission in conjunction with the Department of Labour, shall establish and maintain a record of persons with disabilities who are in possession of various levels of skills and training and shall update such records regularly for the purposes of job placement.

18. Right to health care services.

(1) A person with a disability shall be provided with the same quality and standard of affordable healthcare treatments, health information and health programmes as provided to other persons.

(2) In furtherance of subsection (1), the Ministry of Health shall, in collaboration with the Ministry responsible for disability affairs and all relevant health and rehabilitative authorities—

(a) ensure that all community and health clinics are made accessible to persons with disabilities;

(b) establish programmes for early detection and intervention, assessment and treatment of impairment;

(c) ensure that all medical and para-medical personnel are adequately trained and equipped to give advice and medical care to persons with disabilities;

(d) ensure information on health issues is in a format that is accessible to all persons with disabilities.

19. Housing.

The Minister responsible for Housing in formulating and implementing a Housing Programme shall collaborate with the Commission to include provisions to address accommodations for persons with disabilities.

20. Accessibility and mobility.

Every person with a disability shall be entitled to a barrier-free and disabled friendly environment to enable him to have access to buildings, Information Communication Technology (ICT), roads and other social amenities, and assistive or adaptive devices and other equipment to promote his mobility.

21. Public buildings and parking.

(1) A proprietor of any building to which the public is permitted access shall adapt it to suit persons with disabilities in such manner as may be specified by the Commission including provision for parking of vehicles by persons with disabilities.

(2) All proprietors of buildings under subsection (1) shall comply with subsection (1) within two years after this section comes into operation or on such other date as the Minister may appoint by Notice published in the Gazette.

(3) All proprietors of buildings shall designate parking for persons with disabilities within six months after the coming into operation of this Act.

22. Public Transportation.

The Commission shall collaborate with the Minister responsible for transport to formulate a public transportation policy which shall provide for persons with disabilities and which shall be implemented on the order of the Minister.

23. Service Animals.

The Minister shall, in consultation with the Minister responsible for the control and protection of animals—

(a) facilitate the use of Service Animals by persons with disabilities at public places and public buildings or while using public services or facilities;

(b) facilitate persons with disabilities who need assistance, to have the right to be accompanied by a Service Animal in public places or public buildings or while accessing public services without being required to pay an extra charge for the Service Animal; and

(c) provide standards for certifying animals for use by persons with disabilities.

24. Auxiliary social services.

The Minister responsible for Social Services shall ensure that persons with disabilities who are in vulnerable situations are encouraged to function and participate in community affairs by assisting with—

(a) the acquisition of prosthetic devices, assistive or adaptive devices and medical intervention;

(b) specialized training activities designed to improve the functioning of persons with disabilities with respect to their communication skills;

(c) the development among persons with disabilities of a positive self-image through the provision of counselling, orientation and mobility in order to strengthen their daily living capability;

(d) family care services geared towards developing the capability of families to respond to the needs of persons with disabilities;
(e) substitute family care services and facilities for abandoned, neglected, abused and unattached persons with disabilities who need an alternative form of care based on their individual needs;

(f) family after care and follow-up services for the continued rehabilitation in a community-based setting of persons with disabilities who are discharged from residential care or rehabilitation centres;

(g) day care services for children with disabilities of pre-school age.

25. Sports and recreation.

The Minister responsible for Sports and Culture, in the formulation and implementation of the national sports programme, shall coordinate with the Commission to ensure that—

(a) public and private sports and cultural facilities are accessible to persons with disabilities;

(b) sports, recreational and cultural activities are provided for persons with disabilities;

(c) training of specialists in sports, games and culture for persons with disabilities is provided;

(d) there is improvement of existing facilities and equipment to provide for the participation of persons with disabilities in sports, recreational and cultural activities;

(e) there is development and implementation of sports and physical fitness programmes specifically designed for persons with disabilities taking into consideration the nature of their disability.

26. Voting.

(1) Subject to the provisions of the Parliamentary Elections Act, (Ch. 7) persons with a disability shall be entitled upon request, to be assisted by a person of their choice in voting in parliamentary elections or any referendum.

(2) A person who undertakes to render assistance under subsection (1), shall do so strictly in accordance with the instructions of the voter.

(3) A person described in subsection (2) shall bind himself, in the prescribed form, to comply with this section.

(4) A person who contravenes subsection (2) is guilty of an offence.
PART IV – ADJUSTMENT ORDERS

27. Adjustment Orders.

(1) This section shall apply to—

(a) any premises to which members of the public are ordinarily admitted whether on payment of a fee or otherwise; or

(b) any services or amenities ordinarily provided to members of the public.

(2) Without prejudice to the provisions of section 20, if the Commission considers that any premises, services or amenities are inaccessible to persons with disabilities by reason of any structural, physical, administrative or other impediment to such access, the Commission may, subject to this section, serve upon the owner of the premises or the provider of the services or amenities concerned an adjustment order—

(a) setting out—

(i) a full description of the premises, services or amenities concerned; and

(ii) the grounds upon which the Commission considers that the premises, services or amenities are inaccessible to persons with disabilities;

(b) requiring the owner or provider concerned to undertake at his own expense such action as may be specified in order to secure reasonable access by persons with disabilities to the premises, services or amenities concerned; and

(c) stipulating the period within which the action referred to in paragraph (b) shall be commenced and completed.

(3) Before serving an order under subsection (2) the Commission shall serve notice upon the person concerned—

(a) specifying the ground upon which the adjustment order is to be issued and the nature of the action which the Commission considers necessary to rectify the situation which has given rise to the proposed order;

(b) stipulating the maximum period that the Commission considers reasonable for the implementation of the action it proposes to order, and

(c) calling upon the person concerned, if he wishes to do so, to make representations to the Commission within thirty days from the date of the service of the notice.
(4) After considering any representations described in subsection (3)(c) the Commission may issue, or refrain from or defer the issuing of, an adjustment order.

(5) Within thirty days after an adjustment order is confirmed or issued under subsection (4), the person concerned may appeal against the confirmation or issue to the Court designate whether a Magistrate Court or the Supreme Court in the prescribed manner on any grounds including on the grounds that—

(a) he cannot reasonably be expected to bear the whole or any part of the expense required in implementing the adjustment order;
(b) the period stipulated for implementing the adjustment order is unreasonable;
(c) the nature of the action required to be taken in terms of the adjustment order is, in the circumstances of the case, unreasonable; or
(d) adequate access to the premises, services or amenities concerned may be secured without recourse to the action required by the adjustment order.

(6) Upon hearing an appeal under subsection (5) the Court may—

(a) confirm, vary or set aside the adjustment order appealed against; and
(b) make such order as to the costs of the appeal as it thinks fit.

28. Denial of admission into premises, etcetera.

(1) No person shall, on the ground of disability alone, deny a person with a disability—

(a) admission into any premises to which members of the public are ordinarily admitted; or
(b) the provision of any services or amenities to which members of the public are entitled, unless such denial is motivated by a reasonable concern for the safety of such person.

(2) The proprietor of premises referred to in subsection (1)(a) shall not have the right, on the ground of a person's disability alone, to refuse such person admission to his premises.

(3) A person with a disability who is denied admission into any premises or the provision of any service or amenity contrary to subsection (1) shall be deemed to have suffered an injury and shall have the right to recover damages in any court of competent jurisdiction.

(4) Without prejudice to subsection (3), damages awarded under that subsection shall be recoverable summarily as a civil debt.
29. Offences—Adjustment orders and discrimination.

(1) A person is guilty of an offence if he—
   (a) fails to comply with an adjustment order served under section 27;
   (b) contravenes section 16 or discriminates against a person with a disability contrary to section 16;
   (c) discriminates against a person with a disability contrary to section 18; or
   (d) contravenes section 28 or discriminates against a person with a disability contrary to section 28.

(2) A person who is convicted of an offence under subsection (1) is liable to a fine not exceeding five thousand dollars or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding three months or to both such fine and imprisonment.

(3) A person found guilty of an offence under this section may in addition to the penalty imposed by the Court be ordered to pay to the person injured by the offence such sums of money in compensation as the Court may deem appropriate.

PART V-EDUCATION

30. Free primary and secondary education, trained teachers.

The Minister responsible for Education in collaboration with the Commission shall formulate and implement the National Education programme to ensure that—

   (a) training programmes for teachers specialising in disabilities are developed and implemented so that the requisite trained personnel are available for special schools and integrated schools for children with disabilities; and
   (b) special education is made a compulsory component of the teachers' curriculum offered by institutions established to train teachers.

(1) The Minister responsible for Education, after consultation with the Commission, shall ensure that the special requirements of persons with disabilities are addressed when formulating and implementing educational policies and programmes.

(2) The Minister responsible for Education after consultation with the Commission shall ensure that learning institutions take into account the special needs of persons with disabilities with respect to the entry requirements, curriculum, examinations, auxiliary aids, and services including accessible formatting, use of school facilities, class schedules, physical education requirements and other relevant matters.

32. Integration of persons with disabilities in schools.

The Minister responsible for Education shall—

(a) promote the integration of students with disabilities into all schools and learning institutions;

(b) promote the establishment of special schools by the government and the private sector for those persons in need of special education, so that children with disabilities living in any part of The Bahamas shall have access to these schools;

(c) equip the special schools with vocational training facilities; and

(d) encourage the development of a system of support services for special education in schools.

33. Special education.

(1) The Minister responsible for Education shall establish and maintain an integrated system of special education for persons with disabilities.

(2) The Minister responsible for Education shall establish—

(a) special education classes in schools and facilitate learning in subject areas including Braille, alternative script, augmentative and alternative modes, means and formats of communication, orientation and mobility skills;

(b) Braille and record libraries or sections within existing national libraries throughout The Bahamas;

(3) The Minister responsible for Education shall adopt appropriate measures to facilitate the implementation of the special education programmes in the Family Islands.

34. Television programmes.

All television stations shall within two years of the coming into operation of this Act, provide a sign language inset, closed caption or sub-titles in all newscasts and educational programmes, and in all programmes covering all public notices, national emergencies and national events.
PART VI – NATIONAL DEVELOPMENT FUND

35. Establishment of the Fund.
   (1) There shall be established a Fund to be known as the National Development Fund for Persons with Disabilities.
   (2) The Fund shall be established as a permanent fund and the income therefrom shall be used for the benefit of persons with disabilities in The Bahamas.
   (3) The Fund shall be administered by the Commission through a board of trustees as hereunder provided under section 37.

36. Sources of and payments from Fund.
   (1) The sources of the Fund shall comprise of—
       (a) income generated by investments made by the trustees; and
       (b) any other donations from international and local donors which the Commission may receive for purposes of the Fund.
   (2) Without limiting the generality of section 35, the Board of Trustees may, out of the Fund—
       (a) contribute to capital expenses of organizations of or for persons with disabilities;
       (b) contribute to capital expenses of institutions that train persons in the care of persons with disabilities;
       (c) contribute to the capital expenses of projects undertaken by the Government for the benefit of persons with disabilities.

37. Trustees to manage the Fund.
   (1) The Fund shall be managed by a Board of Trustees which shall consist of—
       (a) the Chairman of the Commission;
       (b) the Executive Secretary of the Commission who shall be the Secretary of the Board (and an ex officio member);
