INSURANCE (REGISTRATION) REGULATIONS

(SECTION 56)

[Commencement 21st May, 1970]

Title. 1. These Regulations may be cited as the Insurance (Registration) Regulations.

Interpretation. 2. In these Regulations, unless the context otherwise requires —

“Act” means the Insurance Act;

“application” means an application for registration;

“registration” means registration under the Act as a registered insurer, registered insurance agent, registered insurance broker or registered insurance salesman, as the case may be.

Form of application.

3. (1) Every application shall be in writing on plain good quality foolscap paper and shall be headed upon the first page thereof “Insurance Act: Application for Registration as a”, specifying the capacity in which the applicant is seeking to be registered.

(2) The information contained in any application shall be set out in separate paragraphs to be numbered in accordance with the paragraphs of the appropriate Part of the First Schedule to these Regulations.

(3) At the end of each application there shall be appended a certificate in the form following, that is to say —

“We certify that to the best of our knowledge and belief all the information given in this application is true and correct.”

Such a certificate shall be signed by the applicant, if an individual, or by a responsible director, officer or manager of the applicant, if a body corporate. Every application shall be addressed to the Registrar of Insurance Companies.

4. (1) Every application made for registration as a registered insurer under Part II of the Act (that is to say every such application made otherwise than by or on behalf of an Association of Underwriters) shall contain the information specified in Part A of the First Schedule to these Regulations.

Information to be supplied by applicant.

(2) Every application made by or on behalf of an Association of Underwriters for registration as registered insurer under Part III of the Act shall contain the information specified in Part B of the First Schedule to these Regulations.

(3) Every application made for registration as a registered insurance agent, registered insurance broker or registered insurance salesman under Part IV of the Act shall contain the information specified in Part C of the First Schedule to these Regulations.

5. (1) If any material change occurs in the circumstances affecting any applicant for registration after the submission of his application but before the decision to grant or refuse registration is communicated to him, and such change has the effect of falsifying any information contained in his application, it shall be the duty of the applicant forthwith to inform the Registrar of such particulars of the change of circumstances as will enable the application to be suitably amended.

Amendment of applications.

(2) If the applicant fails or neglects to inform the Registrar in accordance with this regulation the relevant particulars of the application shall be deemed to be false.

6. (1) The fees specified in the second column of the Second Schedule to these Regulations as initial registration fees shall be due and payable upon the respective grants of registration specified in the first column of that Schedule opposite thereto and the fees specified therein as subsequent annual registration fees shall thereafter be payable annually upon each anniversary of the grant of such registration as a condition of the continuance thereof.

Fees.

(2) The fees shall be paid on or before the due date to the Public Treasury. All unpaid fees shall be recoverable by summary proceedings before a stipendiary and circuit magistrate at the suit of the Treasurer.

(3) The amount of any fee payable under these Regulations shall be reduced by the amount of any fee paid by the same person in respect of the same year under subsection (1) of section 163 of, read with item 3 of the Third Schedule to, the Companies Act.

Ch. 308.

(4) The amount of any fee payable under these Regulations shall be increased by the amount outstanding of any unpaid fees due and payable by the same person in respect of any of the six years preceding the commencement of the Act under section 4 of the Fire Insurance Companies Tax Act, now repealed.

Certificate of registration.

7. A certificate of registration in the form specified in the Third Schedule to these Regulations shall be issued by the Registrar upon the grant of registration to any applicant and upon the payment of the initial registration fees.
